
S.A. Citrique Belge N.V.

Citric Acid Solution

Manufacturing Principle

Citric acid solution is obtained by dissolving citric acid anhydrous in filtered water.

Citric acid anhydrous is prepared fermentatively from a suitable sugar source. The isolated citric acid is finally purified by crystallization from water and dried.

The citric acid solution is conditioned in closed containments and then filled into the containers for transportation.