
S.A. Citrique Belge N.V.

Citric Acid Monohydrate

Manufacturing Principle

Citric acid monohydrate is prepared fermentatively from a suitable sugar source. The isolated citric acid is finally purified by crystallization from water and dried.

The dried citric acid monohydrate is sieved to give fractions of the declared forms, e.g. powder or granular, and then filled into the containers.